

P. THOMAS JENKINS

P. Thomas Jenkins is Executive Chairman and Chief Strategy Officer for Open Text™ Corporation (NASDAQ: OTEX, TSX: OTC) of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, the largest software company in Canada. Open Text supports over 100 million digital media users in many of the world's largest companies, government agencies and professional service firms. Open Text's software manages digital media from web sites to secure social networks helping organizations improve productivity, automate processes and manage large volumes of documents, e-mails, video, web pages and other digital media.

Recognized as one of the "100 Most Influential People" in the world of knowledge management by KMWorld for five years in a row, Mr. Jenkins has been involved with the Internet since it emerged as a major public network in the early 1990s. As CEO of Open Text Corporation, he was instrumental in the creation of one of the first internet search engines that was used by Netscape®, Yahoo!® and IBM®. In partnership with Netscape and later Microsoft, Mr. Jenkins went on to direct the development of the first Internet-based Document Management system as well the earliest versions of internet based Workflow, Portals and Social Networking software. All of these component technologies are early forerunners of current ECM technology. Mr. Jenkins co-authored all three books in the Enterprise Content Management Trilogy as well as his most recent book titled "Managing Content in the Cloud".

From 1994 to 2005, Mr. Jenkins was President, then Chief Executive Officer and then from 2005 to present, Chief Strategy Officer of Open Text. Mr. Jenkins has served as a Director of Open Text since 1994 and as its Chairman since 1998.

In addition to his Open Text responsibilities, Mr. Jenkins is the Chair of the federal centre of excellence Canadian Digital Media Network (CDMN). He is also an appointed member of the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC), past appointed member of the Government of Canada's Competition Policy Review Panel and past appointed member of the Province of Ontario's Ontario Commercialization Network Review Committee (OCN).

Mr. Jenkins is also a member of the board of BMC Software, Inc. a software corporation based in Houston, Texas. He is also a member of the University of Waterloo Engineering Dean's Advisory Council, GRAND, the federal research centre of excellence for digital media, a director of the C.D. Howe Institute, a director of the Canadian International Council (CIC) and a director of the Canadian Council of Chief Executives (CCCE).

Mr. Jenkins received an M.B.A. in entrepreneurship & technology management from Schulich School of Business at York University, an M.A.Sc. in electrical engineering from the University of Toronto and a B.Eng. & Mgt. in Engineering Physics and Commerce from McMaster University.

He lives with his family in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.
